What was the six year old in the story about Kidzone really asking?

How is this indicative of every human’s longing?

What is the Biblical pattern of plot development established already in Genesis 3?

Who is Cassie Bernal?

What is so telling of Jesus’ address to Peter three times as “Simon son of John”?

What does it mean when Jesus asks Simon, “Do you love me more than these?”

Why would Jesus ask Peter the same question three different times?

How are we more like Peter (in the story of his denunciation of Jesus) than we ever like to admit?

What is the significance of the story of Rodrigues, the priest, from Shusako Endo’s novel, The Silence?

*“You ask me what forgiveness means;
it is the wonder of being trusted again by God
in the place where I disgraced him”*
