Series: So You Don't Want to Go to Church Anymore
Message 3: "Anticipation vs. Expectations"

03 - 22 - 09

Explain what it means that Christianity has a love/hate relationship with change.

Why is change especially hard for Christians?

What Biblical precedent do we have for seeing change as opportunistic rather than negative?

Why is defense of Christianity a good thing, but not the only thing?

What kind of change are we drawn to?

How is the Incarnation an act of God demonstrating for us what missional change is really about?

Paul describes becoming a Christian as a "way of _____"
(Ephesians 4:20). Why?

In terms of embracing change, why is it more helpful to talk about anticipation over against expectations?

A Christian needs to wake up every day, anticipating going to bed _____.

*"If we could control God, he'd turn out like us.
Wouldn't it be better to let him have his way with us
so we become like him?"*
