Series: Colossians: Maturing as a Jesus-Follower

“That Which is Dying in Christ”

08 - 09 - 09

What words would you use to describe the atmosphere in worship growing up, each time you ‘celebrated’ communion?

What is one of our most fundamental struggles in knowing how we are supposed to come to the Table?

How can we define grace? Where do we find it in the Bible?

How could we describe an appropriate Christian response to the grace of God?

1.

2.

3.

Our behavioral response is what Paul is referring to in vv. 5-11. What are the three imperatives (commands he offers)?

1. (v. 5)

2. (v. 8)

3. (v. 9)

In order to truly put something to death, you must do what? How does this apply to sin in our lives?

What’s the difference between the vice (sin) list in v. 5 compared to the one found in v. 8?

Applying this passage now to our approach to the Table means what to you?

“ . . . You died . . . Put to death, therefore . . . ”
