"The 20 Minute/Week Relationship"

01 - 10 - 10

How would you describe the Bible in one sentence or less?

What do you think your description of the Bible says about your understanding of God?

What is wrong with approaching the Bible primarily with HOW questions?

What would be a better line of questioning to approach Scripture with and why?

When the whole human story zeroes in on Abraham in Genesis 12:1-3, what is God really telling him/us?

In order to truly find freedom in God's promises, what do we need to do?

What does the writer of Proverbs (1:7) tell us we need in order to find knowledge in life?

How do we sometimes live our spiritual lives vicariously through others?

According to Jesus' words in Luke 6:43-45, where does our overflow come from?

The Bible closes the same way that it starts, with what?
