"Talking Back: Worship Basics"
01 - 24 - 10

Despite our best efforts, our sinful nature will always keep tempting us to make our worship about what?

What is it about this text that can cause us to lose focus on what it is really about?

How is this passage—as Abraham's last command—related to Genesis 12:1-5—his first command?

Why does God ask Abraham to sacrifice Isaac?

How does Exodus 13:11-13 prove helpful here?

Questions for Reflection on Worship:

1) Did we come here out of habit or out of discipline?

2) Is the intensity and sincerity of our worship based on what we've been given or who we've been given?

3) Is our worship about what we would change or about what changed us?

4) Is our worship about self-protection or self-abandonment?
