

James 1:22-27; 2:14-17

“Worship Service and Service Worship”

Series: Rediscovering Worship (Message 2)

04—25—10

What is the First Christian Reformed Church of Seattle, Washington doing for worship this morning? Why?

Over the course of history, worship has moved from being primarily _____ to much more predominantly _____.

At the end of the day, who is worship supposed to change? Why?

How?

Looking at Biblical pictures of worship, one thing our worship must never remain is _____. Why?

According to the Bible, what are the mandatory elements of a worship service?

According to James (1:25), spending time in God’s word and being with him are designed to bring about . . .

1) _____

2) _____

This certainly isn’t designed to be an exhaustive list, but what does James 1:26-27 suggest are appropriate expressions of religion (faith in action) for the follower of God?

1) tongue _____

2) caring for the _____

3) freedom from _____ by the world

Consider and write down some ways that your worship could tangibly overflow this morning into your week.
